STRANGE WAYS OF KILLER

MISSING: Dinah McNicol

KILLER Peter Tobin came to Margate after arranging a council home swap in Scotland.

As police continued to search the garden of the house in Irvine Drive, Margate, last night, the sister of the woman who moved in told of the foul stench inside the house he left behind.

Doris O'Donnell's sister Hannah agreed to the exchange so she could be closer to her family.

But last night, in an exclusive interview with Yourthanet, Mrs O'Donnell, 53, gave a telling insight into Tobin's dark side.

EXCLUSIVE

BY TOM BETTS

She said Tobin was always strange and he even went about the house swap in an odd way.

She said: "He wouldn't even let us look around the house properly.

"Whenever we knocked on the door he would only open it a crack until he knew who it was. If he invited us inside he would never let us look around, which is strange since my sister was going to be moving in."

But once her sister moved in, they were plagued by the smell. Mrs O'Donnell said: "There was a very strange smell in the house and when my sister eventually did move in we had to scrub it from top to bottom and use bleach to get the smell away. There was something very sinister about the house."

Mrs O'Donnell, and her husband Edward, 68, got to know Tobin before he moved to her sister's old home in Barthgate, West Lothian.

They told how he left his home in a Transit van crammed with objects and it appeared that he couldn't get away fast enough.

HORRIFIC DISCOVERY

Police have found human remains at the former home of a convicted killer who is serving a life sentence for rape and murder.

The grisly discovery was unearthed in the garden of the former Margate address of Peter Tobin, who police fear could have been involved in the murder of up to 11 girls.

Officers involved in the investigation are hunting for student Dinah McNicol, from Maldon, Essex, who vanished in 1991 aged 18.

Tests are being carried out on the remains found at the address in Irvine Drive, and forensic archeologists are at the scene.

The people who live at No 50 - who are not suspects - have been moved out and it is expected the investigation will last for about two weeks.

Tobin, 61, who lived in Margate in the early 90s, is in jail for raping and killing Polish student Angelika Kluk, 23. But police suspect that before the killer was brought to justice he travelled across the country preying on vulnerable young women.

Detectives said Miss McNicol disappeared after hitching a lift from a music festival. The teenager and a friend had been driven to a service station on the A3 in Hampshire.

Police link sex beast to Dinah disappearance

■ BY TOM BETTS

POLICE investigating the disappearance of Dinah McNicol are part of a nationwide operation into Peter Tobin – in jail for the brutal rape and murder of migrant worker Angelika Kluk.

Tobin has already been charged with the disappearance of Vicky Hamilton, 15, after her DNA was discovered on a knife found in the loft of his old home near Edinburgh.

Police said last night it is too early to say whether the remains found at the three-bedroom terraced address in Irvine Drive, Millmead, Margate, were those of Dinah, who was 18 when she disappeared after attending a music festival at Liphook in Hampshire in 1991.

Essex police are undertaking the investigation at the house and its inhabitants have been rehoused.

Detectives say it is still too early for a positive identification of the remains, but the investigation is part of a probe linking Tobin to the disappearance of up to 11 women who went missing near to locations he was known to have frequented.

Detective Superintendent Tim Wills said: "The disappearance of Dinah has remained a mystery for too many years.

"She was an intelligent and vibrant young woman who had her whole life ahead of her.

"I would love to believe she is out there somewhere living that life, but I would not be doing my job if I did not investigate the possibility that someone may have harmed her in some way."

The student's father, Ian McNicol, said: "Ninety-nine per cent of me thinks she has been murdered, but there's just one per cent that doesn't know.

"I want to die in peace knowing what happened to my daughter."

Detectives across the country

MISSING: Police say that it is too early to determine if the remains found at the Irvine Drive house are those of Dinah McNicol began probing into Tobin's background after he was sent to prison for the horrific killing of migrant worker Angelika earlier this year.

Officers launched a huge operation nationwide to look into unsolved cases where young women had gone missing near to an address where Tobin or in an area he was known to have frequented.

A police source said: "We fear Tobin may have struck before. It is highly unusual for a vicious killer to commit a stranger murder in his 60s."

NEWS IN BRIEF

As one cinema closes its doors, another opens

THE huge 10-screen, state-of-the-art multiplex cinema in Westwood Cross opens this weekend, just weeks after Dreamland Cinema closed for the last time.

The new complex throws open its doors on Saturday night, with bosses promising movie-goers a first-class cinema experience.

In what owners Vue Entertainment regard as a radical evolution in cinema-going, punters will be able to choose the seating of their choice in which to watch films.

Movie buffs can book beanbags, families and couples can book sofa pods, and premium seats will also be available as the face of cinema continues to change.

The seating idea, which bosses are calling Evolution, is the first of its kind in the UK to be permanently installed at any cinema after trials at other movie houses were deemed a success.

Luxury seating, ample legroom and super-large wall-to-wall, floor-to-ceiling screens will also be features of the new complex, meaning people's favourite movie stars will appear larger than ever on the screen.

Leather

Full disabled access, a bar and café are other selling points, while sound will come from a hi-tech Dolby Digital Surround Sound system.

Large leather seats will make up some rows of seating for those who book the best seats in the house.

Special events such as big sporting events, live concerts and comedy will also be shown at the multiplex in the future, via a satellite link.

David Curtis, of Vue Entertainment, said: "The development has created 55 new jobs and, when we open our doors, these staff will be providing the best service for the community who can now enjoy a superior entertainment experience inside the multiplex.

"It has been created with families in mind and will be a great resource for the community to take advantage of for years to come."

Promoter tunes in to Margate's young

Plans to give musical youth their chance

■ BY TOM BETTS

A RECORDING studio, music workshop, internet radio station and record shop could be on their way to Margate.

Promoter Paul Alexander has told of his plans to set up the combined project and is searching for venues in the town at which he can launch the venture.

His aim is to get more young people in the town involved with music and he intends to launch in the new year.

Modelling

Mr Alexander, 33, who says a modelling agency could also be run from such a base, said: "We want to really get this off the ground in the new year. Predominantly, it will be a workshop where the youngsters can come and do DJ-ing and learn more music skills, but we plan to get an internet station and record shop started too."

Ramsgate's Pie Factory charity, with its Assembly Line studio, is the much-praised studio that is currently Thanet's first port of call for young musicians, but Mr Alexander says Margate also needs an outlet for young people to attend.

He said: "We need somewhere for the young musicians in this area to come to. The Pie Factory in Ramsgate is excellent – what those guys do over there is amazing, but it would be great if Margate had somewhere too."

"I'm sure it would be a success."

Anthony Johnson, rapper and star of Margate film Exodus, has also called for a studio for Margate's youth to call their own.

In September, he told Yourthanet: "I use Pie Factory, but Margate could really use one."

"There's a lot of trouble between the kids from Margate and Ramsgate and a studio – something for them to focus on – would give them something to do."

On Saturday, meanwhile, Mr Alexander was busy promoting a gig at which Anthony Johnson AKA Spooka and Lethal, Harry Shotta, Ruff Stuff, Danja and Jezk were due to appear.

Time – a night of drum and bass and hip-hop – was played out at The Lounge at The Parade on Margate seafront. It can only be hoped the Margate beat is really starting to happen.

Search is on for bad dishes

COUNCIL officers are on the lookout for satellite dishes installed in conservation areas without planning permission.

Complaints that dishes have been put up in unsuitable areas have been highlighted by isle residents' groups.

A survey of Thanet's 20 conservation areas will establish how widespread the problem is.

Satellite dishes in conservation areas require planning permission if they can be seen from highways or if they are placed on a listed building.

Cllr Roger Latchford, cabinet member for economy and culture, said: "Thanet has a valuable historic environment which we want to preserve for future generations."

"We know this is something that concerns local people and we are responding to those concerns by carrying out this survey."

For advice on satellite dishes and to find out if you live in a conservation area, phone the conservation team on 01843 577141, or email Conservation-&-Listed-Buildings@thanet.gov.uk.

Film unites locals with its message

TWO hundred people turned out at the weekend to watch a film about the over-development of Thanet.

Ramsgate's Granville Cinema hosted the premiere of Thanet Under Threat, film-maker Christine Tongue's documentary about the increase in development on the isle.

She said: "We were really pleased with the turnout for the film and there was a very good discussion following the screening. Many people feel strongly that there should be a joint effort to protect our green and public spaces from the bulldozers."

Ms Tongue added that some good may come from the after-screening discussion.

She said: "It amazed me how constructive the ideas were that people were coming up with – and how anxious so many people are to co-operate to protect their communities. This area used to have a reputation for apathy over public issues, but not any longer"

A further meeting will be held to follow up the concerns of isle residents at the Red Hall, 11 Grovesnor Road, Broadstairs, at 7.30pm on December 13.

Admission is free.

Business is priority as councillors look to tie up China deal

A DELEGATION of Thanet councillors is heading to China in a bid to seal deals for the Manston Business Park – and they have vowed not to have any fun.

Council leader Sandy Ezekiel, deputy leader Roger Latchford, chief executive Richard Samuel and corporate director John Burnett are travelling to the Far East to try to wrap up deals to develop the site.

Cllr Ezekiel said: "This is a major opportunity for the area and has the potential to create up to 1,000 new jobs over time. With recent job losses, that's more important than ever. If there's a deal there, we're determined to clinch it for Thanet."

He also stressed the trip would be a business-only affair and is being paid for by the Chinese government.

He said: "I want people to know this trip isn't costing them anything. It's going to be a packed week and I doubt we'll have time for any enjoyment. Everything is being paid for by the Chinese."

The Thanet representatives will meet Heng Fao, the chairman of the government agency responsible for Chinese companies setting up with the West, in Beijing.

Stopping in both Hong Kong and China, the council members' visit will last a week. The delegation departs on Saturday, November 18.

The visit is a follow-up to an agreement between the South East England Development Agency (Seeda) and the China-Europe Association for Technical and Economic Co-operation.

The two organisations agreed to establish a Sino-UK economic interactive platform to facilitate business growth between the UK and China, and the Thanet representatives are eager to arrange deals.

In September, the council signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the government of Baotou City to establish a research, development, manufacturing and distribution centre in Thanet. Any developments agreed on will be subject to the usual council planning laws.

Waves crashed along the coast on Friday – watch the video!

WAVE ACTION

THE NORTH SEA huffed and puffed but failed to blow down Thanet's sea defences during Friday's big storm.

A tidal surge pummelled England's east coast during the day, but fears that it might match the havoc wrought by the great storm of 1953 were never realised.

In Margate, businesses such as Cafe G and Rouge Bar, sitting in the lowest part of the seafront, were issued with sandbags as the midday high tide approached.

Dozens of photographers lined up along Fort Crescent, braving the wind, rain and spray from the huge waves to capture the arrival of the surge. One of them was Mark Dumbrell, who took this dramatic image.

Council workers jumped from the back of trucks to lay sandbags in doorways.

In Joss Bay, Broadstairs, two surfers were rescued by Coastguard cliff rescuer Keith Silcock. For pictures of the rescue and other images from the day, visit Yourthanet.co.uk.

Football's Iron Man who gave so much

■ BY TOM BETTS

ONE of Thanet football's most popular characters has died.

Bob Harrop, former centre-back with Margate, Ramsgate and Manchester United, passed away on Thursday last week aged 71.

He played 567 times for Margate, still a club record.

Mr Harrop, dubbed the Iron Man for his physical style of play, died of a heart attack.

Manchester-born Mr Harrop was a lynchpin of the Gate defence for years but also played 11 times for the Manchester giants as a Busby Babe after the Munich disaster in 1958.

Following a stint with Tranmere Rovers, he joined Margate in 1961 and scored 26 goals for the club.

But it will be for his crunching tackling, aerial ability, enduring fitness and love of the game that he will best be remembered.

He was made captain of the Hartsdown club in 1962 and even gave up his job to help out

'A LEGEND IN MARGATE': Bob Harrop will be sorely missed with groundsman's duties and odd jobs at the ground before becoming a window cleaner.

During 1966 he had to be saved from choking by club officials after swallowing chewing gum on the pitch in a match against Chelmsford.

He went on to play for the Blues until 1969, when he transferred to Ashford Town and then to Canterbury City. However, he returned to Hartsdown for a comeback in 1977 aged 41.

In the 1978/79 season Mr Harrop joined Ramsgate following Margate's decision not to give him the role of reserves manager, and he played for and managed Rams reserves.

He was appointed as first-team manager at Southwood in 1979, but his reign was not successful and he resigned in 1980.

However, island football held his attention for years and Mr Harrop played up to the age of 45, eventually moving into refereeing.

He was elected president of the Thanet and District Football League in 2005 and was still refereeing up until two weekends ago.

Margate secretary and long-time friend Ken Tomlinson said: "He was a great guy, a real leader and a terrific person. He never drank or smoke at all and was always fit. No one could beat him in the air."

"Bob was immaculate and will be very much missed. He was a legend in Margate and a hell of a guy to go with it – it's a huge loss for the club and for Thanet."

Mr Harrop is survived by wife Cindy and three sons.

Aitken's back and he's keen to reform prisons

JAILED former Cabinet minister Jonathan Aitken has revealed exclusively to Yourthanet details of his return to the political arena.

The former Thanet South MP has been asked to serve as a member of the independent think tank The Centre for Social Justice, which advises Conservative leader David Cameron.

He says his first-hand experience of the criminal justice system will assist him in putting forward ideas.

"It's an unpaid job," said Mr Aitken. "I'm going to be the chairman of the group which looks into prison reform. The think tank is run by [former Conservative leader] Iain Duncan Smith and has a separate but close relationship with the opposition.

"There is a growing general recognition that our prisons are in a state approaching crisis.

■ BY NICK AMES

"There is overcrowding and its huge knock-on effects. Then there is the drug problem and the repeat offending issue."

Mr Aitken said a vast number of young offenders re-offended in just two years and the rehabilitation issue was one which desperately needed to be addressed.

He explained: "Even though I have been in jail I have not gone soft on the idea of people being sent to prison.

"I absolutely know that there are some people who need to be locked up.

"But we are not getting enough people off the revolving carousel of crime.

"The major question is what can we do as a society to tackle these issues."

Mr Aitken said that as well as having "been through the system" he was working actively with a number of prison charities. One is the Prison Fellowship International, which tackles the issue of crime and punishment on a global scale and another is concerned with caring for ex-offenders.

"I think I am fairly well informed and I have got a team of distinguished people to work with me.

"There are criminal psychologists, those with experience of running prisons, and even three ex-inmates who have turned their lives around and are now contributing positively to society.

"This group is going to look into ways to reform the whole system with new thinking and new ideas.

"We aim to get together as soon as next week."

Mr Aitken was jailed for 18 months for perjury in 1999 after his legal suit against The Guardian newspaper over allegations concerning business deals collapsed.

Street sales bid led to fine

A MAN has been fined for illegal street trading.

Lachslave Cuprik, of Seaview Terrace, Margate, was fined £500 and told to pay £100 court at Thanet court on Monday.

Cuprik said he did not know that selling vehicles at the side of the road was illegal after he tried to sell a Saab 93 in Addiscombe Road, Margate, on October 3.

Police patrols investigated after locals complained that vehicles were being offered for sale in the road. A police officer phoned the number displayed on a sign in one of the car's windows and Cuprik was caught out.

Cllr Jo Gideon said: "We have prohibited street trading in a number of streets in Thanet. That list is freely available on our website and upon request, so there's no excuse for illegal street trading.

"If you don't know which streets you can trade on in Thanet, then it's up to you to find out, or you could find yourself facing prosecution and a large fine, as happened in this case."

Officer hurt in stand-off

A MAN barricaded himself into a flat after threatening his neighbours in Margate.

Missiles were also thrown from the Trinity Square premises following the disturbance around 11.20pm on Sunday night and one police officer suffered minor injuries from falling glass.

The man, who blocked up his front door to stop anyone entering, also set fire to materials and made threats to officers, but police negotiators talked him into surrendering and he was arrested.

Exhibition for rail fans

MODEL railway fans will be gathering in Broadstairs next weekend.

The North Kent Model Railway Group holds its 19th annual Broadstairs model railway exhibiton at St George's School and will host model train buffs from across the region.

The exhibition, from 10am-4pm on Saturday and Sunday, November 24-25, will include a range of working models and track layout, both large and small. Both young and old will get the chance to operate trains.

Magistrates fine cabbie

A TAXI driver who left his cab unattended has been fined by magistrates.

Arthur Goodwill, of Margate Road, Ramsgate, was ordered to pay a £50 fine and £100 court costs at Thanet court on Monday.

The 64-year-old had left his taxi unattended at a cab rank in Broadstairs High Street.

The prosecution was brought by Thanet council's licensing team.

QUESTION & ANSWER

SUE BUSS

QA

Thanet College principal Sue Buss talks to Tom Betts about what the isle means to her, how she contributes to its future, and what she hopes future development can offer everyone who lives here

Q Who or what brings you to Thanet, Sue?

A The post of principal of Thanet College offered an exciting opportunity to lead the development of education and skills in the 21st century. I was attracted to Thanet because the college is well placed to serve the needs of the community. The college is large enough to offer a broad range of courses in response to local demands, but it is also small enough to provide really good individual support for each individual student, which is vital for success.

Q Whereabouts in Thanet do you spend most of your time?

A Thanet College! I spend as much time as possible there, but I am also involved in quite a number of local organisations, for example Thanet Local Strategic Partnership, Thanet 14-19 Consortium and the East Kent Partnership.

Q What do you like about Thanet?

A I like the strong sense of community within Thanet. The main towns and the villages are quite distinctive, each with a rich history. Thanet is beautiful. The area has some of the most wonderful natural coastline in Britain. We are fortunate to have such a dry and sunny climate and because the countryside is relatively flat I am always aware of the amazing skies in Thanet.

Q Did you grow up here?

A I was born in Yorkshire and my husband grew up in Folkestone. We were married in Kent and, although we have lived in different parts of the country, we chose to return because we really like this part of the world.

Q Are there any aspects of the area you dislike?

A I am sometimes saddened by negative attitudes towards achievements. There is great potential within Thanet and we all need to work together constructively to build a better future.

Q What can you do to help improve the fortunes of Thanet?

A I can help by ensuring that further education and training are at the heart of future developments within Thanet. We will continue to work with local employers to meet the needs within the area. Our Centre of Vocational Excellence in Hospitality and Catering has a strong international reputation, but primarily it is here to offer top-quality training in Thanet.

Q What do you like to do in your spare time?

A I really like spending time outdoors: walking, gardening and travelling. I also enjoy reading, I like going to art exhibitions and I spend as much time as possible with family and friends.

Q Tell me your views on the future for the area

A This is an exciting time for Thanet. The improved rail service and the potential to develop transport links via road, air and sea will have a significant impact on future development. In the past few years we have seen a growth of new businesses in Thanet, which is the start of a trend that will grow in the next few years. The growth in retail outlets and new homes will be welcomed by many people. I think that the area has a very positive future.

Q What changes would you like to see happen in Thanet over the next few years?

A Most importantly, I would like to see more young people and adults achieving their ambitions.

My priority is to create a state-of-the-art new campus for Thanet College, alongside the university in Broadstairs. This will enable us to provide further education and training for many more students in Thanet.

I fully support the development of the Turner centre and related developments in the arts. The proposed London Array wind farm and associated developments in Ramsgate should provide welcome opportunities for greater employment.

I would also like to see improved transport links and housing to encourage greater investment in the future of Thanet.

Listeners go online to hear DJs' confessions

■ BY GARY WRIGHT

INVICTA FM's online confessions are proving a huge hit with listeners anxious to find out all the dirt on their favourite presenter.

Bosses at the top station have ordered a host of its biggest names to confess their deepest secrets on camera in one of the most revealing stunts the station has ever staged.

Viewers at yourkenttv.co.uk can watch the likes of breakfast show king and queen James Heming and Ali Wheeler spill the beans.

An insider at the radio station revealed: "Listeners to the show will, for the first time, be able to see the presenters and look into their eyes as they reveal some of their worst moments."

Shocking

"It's surprising, embarrassing and shocking. It's a brilliant idea. The presenters have to tell fans something about themselves that they could never find out any other way. And the best part about it all is that it is all helping raise money for disadvantaged children."

Every confession will be broadcast on Yourkenttv.co.uk every day this week and as we went to press Claire Lawson was winning with her toilet story.

Ali Wheeler shocked the world by admitting what really turns her on in men and causes co-presenter James Heming to strip off.

KOS Media, publishers of this newspaper and broadcasters of Yourkenttv – will give £1 to the Help a Kent Child – for every person that registers this week. Registration is completely free and not only will members be able to upload their own video clips, they will also receive e-editions of our newspapers completely free.

Help a Kent Child is Invicta FM's charity

SECRETS REVEALED: (clockwise) Invicta FM's James Heming, Ali Wheeler, Andy Walker, Claire Lawson, Neil Kefford and Stephen Sullivan have revealed their most embarrassing moments in aid of charity which raises funds to help disadvantaged young people to fulfil dreams and ambitions they would never have thought possible.

There are many children in Kent who experience the negative effects of poverty, abuse, neglect, homelessness, violence, crime, illness and disability; who are carers for their own parents or who are indirect victims of domestic violence or suffer daily pain due to illness.

In this world of glamour and gain, these are the children Invicta FM and KOS Media want to help.

Afternoon show presenter Andy Walker initially refused to reveal anything more about himself, but as station bosses put their foot down the truth finally came out.

Drivetime presenter Neil Kefford was prepared and he just told the truth. "There was no other way," he said.

Evening presenter Stephen Sullivan almost escaped but no-one could be left out and he too was forced to reveal all.

• Go to www.yourkenttv.co.uk to see the presenters' confessions.

Green group calls for bike training to be improved

GREEN campaigners have accused Kent County Council of failing to provide enough cycle training to keep young people safe.

Kent Green Party says the county council should use the government's national training scheme – instead of its own one-day courses.

Campaigner Steve Dawe said: "Kent's courses are not being run under the Government's national scheme, in which far more training is provided."

"Medway uses the government scheme, gets a grant, and does not charge youngsters or their families for cycle proficiency training."

But KCC cabinet member for highways Keith Ferrin said: "We take cycle training very seriously. We offer our own Kent Rider scheme as an introduction to safer cycling for Year 6 pupils countywide."

"About 10,000 pupils were successfully introduced to cycling in this way during the last school year."

"The Kent scheme offers a one-day, on-the-road course with a ratio of one instructor for every six pupils."

"Parents pay £15 a year for the course which, I believe, represents good value-for-money."

He added: "In an ideal world we would offer free training to all, but the cost to the taxpayer would run into hundreds of thousands of pounds."

Over half our schools are officially labelled healthy

A TOTAL of 310 schools countywide have been officially designated as "healthy".

The NHS and Kent County Council are behind the move, which promotes fruit and veg tuck shops, healthy menus for lunch and physical activities.

It is designed as part of a lifestyle package which also includes educational standards and personal well-being.

A total of 59 per cent of schools across the county have currently qualified for the award.

Chris Wells, KCC schools chief, said: "Hopefully the programme will influence pupils throughout their lives and in turn inspire their families to healthier lifestyles."

All wrapped up

Simon Robinson finds out how to make your gift even more special with a new wrapping service at Bluewater

THE RUN-UP to Christmas fills me with dread.

As a criminally disorganised 20-something male, just thinking about the whole present-buying process is enough to bring me out in a cold sweat.

I know how it should be done; think of what your loved-ones would like, buy it, wrap it, stick it under the tree.

Sadly I am completely lacking in the necessary skills to complete this seemingly simple four-part task.

Unable to use any initiative when it comes to matching people with gifts and quick to use the 'head-in-the-sand' technique, I'm resigned to my fate of aimlessly wandering through Bluewater's halls on Christmas Eve desperate, panicked and alone. Again.

Having impulse-bought for England to get past the purchasing stage I move on to the next equally daunting challenge – wrapping.

Armed with only three metres of wrapping paper, a pair of scissors and a roll of sticky tape, I'm usually able to make steady progress on the standard-shaped pressies – books, CDs and DVDs. It's the odd-shaped and awkwardly-packaged gifts which reduce me to tears: how do you wrap a football?!

Enter gift wrapping guru Jane Mears with a host of top tips and advice for people like me who have the hand equivalent of two left feet.

After an hour of paper creasing, knot-tying and ribbon cutting at one of Jane's workshops I had successfully wrapped a bottle of wine, a Christmas pudding and made a giftbag.

What's more, said items neither resemble a train wreck nor were they precariously held together with 100 pieces of sticky tape.

I'm confident for the first time this year I can offer the family perfectly wrapped presents on Christmas morning, but they'll still be handed over while rolling out my usual disclaimer "if you don't like it, I've got the receipt".

Jane's top tips

- 1 For awkward shapes, use flexible wrapping like cellophane.
- 2 If wrapping something sharp, pad with tissue or bubble wrap first.
- 3 Use double sided tape for that professional touch.
- 4 Keep your wrapping area organised and free of clutter.
- 5 Keep ribbon and paper offcuts, they will come in handy for decorative touches.
- 6 If it's round, place a bowl underneath your paper to keep it still.
- 7 When wrapping garments, fold neatly into a compact square or oblong and wrap with tissue.
- 8 Make sure you have some sharp scissors for cutting ribbon. Blunt scissors are only good for cutting paper.
- 9 If you can't be bothered to do it yourself, Webster's Wrapology are offering a unique, high quality gift wrapping service within Bluewater up to Christmas Eve. Prices start from £3.95 for a small item and go up to £7.95 for a large gift.

Shopping centre switch-on draws crowds

BLUEWATER celebrated the start of the Christmas shopping season on Thursday as Santa switched on the Christmas lights.

Invicta FM's Ali Wheeler and James Heming, with characters from upcoming festive movie Alvin and the Chipmunks, joined Father Christmas for the big turn on watched by a crowd of several hundred people.

The shopping mall also opened its grotto for Christmas with children from the Demelza House hospice getting a special preview.

Radio personality Ali said:

"This has been great, we've had loads of children and families and they're all enjoying themselves."

Bluewater shopping centre is expecting trade to grow over the coming weeks.

General manager Andre Parkinson said: "We've had an excellent year already, but the festive season is always busy."

"The lead up to Christmas sees shoppers flocking here – but our busiest day of the year is actually December 27. So there is not going to be much of a rest for our staff over the holiday period."

Each week we get a mystery writer to air their views on living on the Isle of Thanet...

The unacceptable cost of 'converting' a local prison

YOU may have read in the press that Canterbury prison has been 'converted' to hold purely 'foreign' prisoners.

Not such a bad thing, I thought. Makes sense – put all the soon-to-be-deported criminals in one place, surely making good procedural and financial logic. But then I read that it had cost the Government £15 million to convert the two prisons.

So how exactly do you 'convert' a prison? Why is a 'foreign' prison different to a 'domestic' one?

A prison is a prison, surely? Same bars, same locks, same walls... all designed to stop bad people escaping. So how was our taxpayers' money spent, then?

A bit of trawling around the news sites on the wonderful WorldWideWeb and I found my answer....

"Canterbury prison has demolished its chapel and built a block to cater for the various religions of its foreign inmates.

"The centre is called 'a multi-faith hall of worship'."

It has Muslim foot baths and individual prayer rooms. There are no symbols permanently fixed to the walls – the cross from the former chapel was taken down and is now kept in a cupboard.

It is only brought out when the Christian service is held on a Sunday. At the opening of the block in April, the jail's principal chaplain, the Rev Cathy Hitchens, revealed that 57 per cent of inmates were Christians, 26 per cent Muslims and 17 per cent other religions, including Hindus, Buddhists and Jews.

"It is like a mini-United Nations," she said.

So, among the £15 million spent, we've had to provide religious facilities for all these different sects of foreign criminals.

And please remember that's what they are – criminals.

They're not asylum seekers from war-torn corners of the globe, waiting to see if this country will accept them to stop their suffering – they are robbers, rapists, sex offenders...

They can't be rehabilitated because we don't want them here – they are waiting to be deported, never to return.

There are currently 11,097 foreign prisoners in UK jails, 284 currently at Canterbury, costing us £38,610 per inmate per year.

Despite agreements in place with more than 100 countries for prisoners to serve their sentences in their home nations, there were only 2,500 successful deportations of non-UK criminal prisoners last year.

I've yet to find the official figures on the number of new non-UK criminals added to the prison list in the last year, but if it's anything like the refused asylum seeker numbers, I'm guessing it will be a negative balance. We're adding more each week to the foreign prison population than we are deporting.

So instead of spending £15 million of our money making life more comfortable for these unwanted convicts, let's charter a fleet of planes and fly them home.

TALK TIME

ANDY HOWE

Andy Howe is the Police Community Support Officer in Ramsgate meeting and working with youth groups and the retired

Tell us what your job entails, Andy

My job involves maintaining a high-visibility police presence on the area of my beat, meeting with community groups such as youth groups and the retired. I endeavour to break down barriers between some of these groups and the police family. I support my police officer colleagues by attending and dealing with low-level crime and anti-social behaviour, which frees up time for patrols to attend more immediate calls and allows Kent police to provide a more efficient service to the public.

What do you like and dislike about your job?

One of my favourite parts of this job is dealing with the public and being able to satisfy people's want and needs with regard to their security, worries and general concerns. Positive feedback from the public is always a winner – there's nothing quite like having a bit of praise bestowed upon oneself! Probably the most beneficial part of the job is the exercise, fresh air and scenery. My dislikes are few and only occur from time to time. Finding people who are deceased is not the nicest way to spend one's day – also finding the aftermath of a crime in my area which I could not prevent can give a feeling of frustration. I am often reminded that we can't be everywhere even if we wish we could.

Tell us your feelings about Thanet in general

I was born and raised in Thanet, and I believe the area offers us a lot, which we mostly take for granted. You only need to walk along the Royal Esplanade at Ramsgate and look down towards the Harbour Parade and you will see one of the most picturesque harbours in the country. We have some lovely beaches and bays in the area, plus there are lots of events going on all year round to entertain us.

YOUR LETTERS

Can prophet predict my hols?

I was interested to read Tom Betts's report on the "self-proclaimed prophet" Joseph Johnes in last week's Yourthanet.

His predictions for the isle are certainly interesting, but I wish he would have given more specific dates for the earthquakes and floods we are going to suffer – it would be handy so I would know when to take my holidays!

It will be fascinating to see if any of his visions actually come true.

Denise Paige
Margate

I'm a campaigner against Sandys

I read with interest the Conservative newsletter The Campaigner and was amazed to read what Laura Sandys claims to have delivered for Thanet South.

Fortunately for the people of Thanet South, we already have an MP delivering what Ms Sandys talks about.

She claims she is the Conservative Police Bureaucracy Buster.

Fact: Labour has provided the finance for more police than any other previous government and works constantly to cut bureaucracy and place more police on our streets.

Ms Sandys claims to be working to increase skills and attract jobs to this area.

Fact: Labour has invested in schools and universities for Thanet South, helping halve unemployment since it came to power.

LETTER OF THE WEEK

Predictions: let's tread warily

I write in response to the Yourthanet article of October 31 regarding Joseph Johnes (pictured above) and his predictions of disaster for Thanet.

The telling phrase in the article was to say that Mr Johnes is 'a pastor of his own ministry'. Mr Johnes is not part of a recognised Christian community in Thanet. Anyone in a recognised Christian community making the claims that Mr Johnes does, would talk to others in the community to be sure that the claims of visions and messages were genuinely from God and not from their own imagination.

I have spoken to Mr Johnes myself at length in the past urging him to be part of a Christian community, but he has refused on the grounds that they may not accept his messages and therefore suppress his ability to have such visions.

Most Christian communities would be open and welcoming to all and ready to listen to others, but we all must be humble enough not to think that any one person independent of others will be special to God in the way He communicates with His world.

If Mr Johnes's predictions were true, I would expect members of churches in Thanet to have been aware of such things themselves apart from Mr Johnes. As far as I am aware, no such messages have come to any other Christian community.

Rev Chris Skingley
Vicar of St Mark's Church, Ramsgate

Ms Sandys claims to be securing better care for the elderly.

Fact: Labour has invested more into services for the elderly than any other government and will continue to improve provisions for the elderly.

This is unlike Conservative-controlled Kent County Council, which has cut the subsidies to its care homes.

Ms Sandys claims to be fighting to stop over-development.

Fact: It is Tory-controlled Thanet District Council that allows development over the Government's requirements for this area, and that wants to sell off green sites such as Ramsgate tennis courts for development.

The development of gardens can only be contemplated if the garden owner wishes to sell the land – the Government cannot make them.

Thankfully Thanet South has an MP in Steve Ladyman who puts words into actions and who has a proven track record of producing results for Thanet South.

Embrace project and 21st century

I could not agree more with the letter from Mark Websper – and how appropriate that it should have been chosen as last week's letter of the week.

Supporters of the project have been trying to get these points across since it was announced.

I think many Thanetians don't want to believe it's true as they are reluctant to be dragged even into the 20th century, let alone the 21st.

£800 million was spent on St Pancras station.

It is great that millions are being spent on the new javelin high-speed trains that will run from Ramsgate station to London.

It is great that millions are being spent installing new transformers to power the new javelin trains, but when are the gents toilets at Ramsgate going to be opened, having been closed for two weeks?

Gary Ward
black cab owner-driver, Ramsgate station

All the train hype is well off track

Thanet South MP Steve Ladyman crows about our new rail link taking one hour and 30 minutes to get to London.

As usual it is another half-baked cheap-skate plan. As is everything that our MPs and councillors get involved in.

The refurbished St Pancras station is opening: Peterborough in 46 minutes, Swindon in 55 minutes, Calais in 58 minutes, Southampton in one hour and 14 minutes, Ipswich in one hour and eight minutes, Lille in one hour and 19 minutes and Birmingham in one hour and 29 minutes.

Other lines have had a rail link for years that takes less time than the supposed new Thanet link.

Dr Ladyman and councillors, get off your backsides – this area needs investment! We need a proper rail link. Start doing what you were voted in for and represent this area.

A rail link from Thanet should take less than an hour.

It would see this area take off.

Start renewing what is there. Yet again my daughter had to be taken to Faversham at the weekend to get a train. Then there was still another bus from Rochester.

Three and half hours to travel from Birchington to London!

Adrian Ottley

We've been sold down the river

This great nation of ours once had control over all aspects of British life, but both our main political parties have sold us down the river. Shame on them.

What we voted for was the Common Market that is now no more. What we have now is an unelected body meddling in all our affairs with gutless UK governments.

Thousands of years of heritage down the drain.

Unelected assemblies don't answer to anyone – the EU hasn't had its accounts written off for more than 11 years. They should get their house in order first. We are being swamped with EU controls.

Diabetic children need more support

Today is World Diabetes Day and we are writing to tell you about the problems faced by children with diabetes in schools across the country.

A survey published today by charities Diabetes UK, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), INPUT and UK Children with Diabetes Advocacy Group showed that school staff are often not given the training they need to help children with Type 1 diabetes manage their condition on a daily basis or in an emergency, which is putting these youngsters' health in danger.

As parents of a child who has Type 1 diabetes, we feel every school in England needs to implement a policy that sets out how children with diabetes should be supported.

The sooner we help families by getting a joined-up approach to helping school children live with the condition, the sooner these young people will be able to enjoy their childhood like others their age.

Shaun lacks magic light into future

Actor Williamson looks back over a busy year, and forward to the unexpected

AFTER a packed year, Maidstone-born actor Shaun Williamson is looking forward to an uncertain future.

Currently preparing to star in pantomime at The Marlowe Theatre, Williamson has no fixed plans for the new year, despite a number of offers.

"Sometimes the phone just rings and it changes your life," he said.

"I don't mean that in a grandiose way, but it can be nice just waiting to see what will turn up next. I didn't think anything would happen this year, but I've not stopped."

One call that certainly did change his life was from comedy star Ricky Gervais two years ago.

Following Williamson's performance as the hapless Barry Evans in EastEnders, Gervais wanted him in Extras.

"I'd never met Ricky - he just called and offered me the part. He told me 'We need to discuss it because you might not like it', but they outlined the first series and it sounded great."

After 10 years in EastEnders, Williamson was ready for a change. To say his character Barry had a tough time is an understatement - he was frequently conned, lost his father and was wrongly diagnosed as having a fatal condition before being murdered by his unfaithful wife.

Since he left the soap in 2004, however, life has been distinctly more upbeat.

The accomplished singer, who lives with his family near Faversham, has enjoyed runs in the West End with Saturday Night Fever and Guys and Dolls, starred in the Rocky Horror Show and Oliver, and appeared on numerous television programmes.

He has also acted recently in an adaptation of Rapunzel for the BBC and filmed a movie, British drama Daylight Robbery.

He will be stepping into Barry/Shaun's shoes again for the Extras Christmas special. It is likely to be the last episode, but he is still upbeat about the future: "I never thought I would be working with Ricky Gervais in a million years. I've been so lucky."

Shaun Williamson will be appearing as Abanazar in Aladdin, alongside presenter Stephen Mulhern, local hero Dave Lee and a troupe of Mongolian acrobats.

Tickets are priced from £8.50 to £21.50. For details, you can visit www.marlowetheatre.com, phone the box office on 01227 787787, or pick up a brochure from the theatre.

STARLIGHT ENTERTAINERS PRODUCTIONS

Thursday, November 22
Granville Theatre, Ramsgate

THEATRE lovers can help Children In Need by enjoying an evening of entertainment.

Starlite Entertainers Productions has been staging variety shows in aid of local and national charities for 25 years and has raised more than £135,000 so far. This year, the company has organised an extravaganza of song, dance and magic to raise money for Pudsey and friends.

Trudi Kingham's Theatre Arts Company Dancers will open the show, and top amateur dance champions Ian Sharpe and Victoria Lawrence (pictured) will be going through their paces. There will be excerpts from the hugely successful local schools production of Les Miserables and the Granville Theatre's own Wizard of Oz.

The beautiful singing voices of Starlite regulars Corinne Heady and Kelly Adams and some stage magic are also on the bill. Closing the show will be a performance by Sally Wood's Solo School Dancers.

"Mr Ramsgate" Ralph Hoults compères the show, which starts at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £6 or £4 for adults and £4 for children, with all profits going to Children in Need. To book, phone the theatre on 01843 591750 or Ralph on 01843 587123.

BASIL OF THE CARIBBEAN

Sunday, November 18
Winter Gardens, Margate

A LIFE on the ocean wave is calling for fearless fox Basil Brush as he battles pirates in his new show.

Basil of the Caribbean follows the adventures of Captain Basil as he tries to retrieve the legendary Golden Jelly Baby. The audience will be asked to help him find the relic, stolen by evil pirate Captain Jack Black-Hat 1,000 years ago.

Basil said: "I'm particularly pleased to be coming back to Kent because the boys and girls there shout much louder than the children in Surrey. I feel sure we shall get the Golden Jelly Baby back in no time."

The good ship HMS Boom-Boom will be crewed by members of the Hungarian State Circus, whose death-defying feats will astound the audience.

With special guests Cheeky Monkey and The Jungle Rockers, there should be plenty of music, laughter and excitement for all the family. The jokes will depend on Basil's mood, but he revealed his current favourite gag.

"Why do the Teletubbies always go to the loo together? Because they've only got one Tinky-Winky. Boom-boom!"

The show starts at 2.30pm and tickets cost £10 for adults, £8 for children, or £30 for a family of four. To book, phone 01843 292795/296111 or see www.margatewintergardens.com.

RELATIVE VALUES

Thursday, November 22
Theatre Royal Margate

THE timeless wit of Noël Coward can be enjoyed in the latest Broadstairs Dickens Players production.

Relative Values is a comedy of manners which explores what happens when cultures clash. The fun begins when the Countess of Marshwood discovers her son intends to marry a Hollywood starlet.

Battle commences between the stiff-upper-lipped English and their brash American counterparts during a sedate dinner, when the actress's former flame arrives to cause havoc.

Skeletons emerge from the cupboards of both the family and their servants as the couple, played by Roger Smythe and award-winning Joanna Slater (pictured), try to keep their engagement intact.

Broadstairs Dickens Players have recently celebrated their 70th anniversary and are still one of the most prominent local amateur drama societies.

Performances start at 7.30pm daily and there will be a 2.30pm matinee on Saturday.

Tickets cost £9. To book, phone 01227 787787 or 0845 130 1786.

ON GENERAL RELEASE

GOOD LUCK CHUCK (15)

It all started when Chuck was 10 years old. Breaking the cardinal rules of spin-the-bottle, Charlie refused to kiss a Goth girl, and she put a hex on him. Now, 25 years later, Charlie is a successful dentist... and still cursed so that any girl who sleeps with him will fall madly in love with the next man she meets.

PLANET TERROR (18)

After an experimental bio-nerve gas is accidentally released at a remote US military base in Texas, those exposed to the gas turn into flesh-eating, mutating zombies out to kill. Rodriguez directs at full pelt, but his film runs out of dramatic steam in the first hour, leaving the majority of the overblown action to his feisty, gravity-defying heroine.

BUG (18)

A weirdo war veteran who suffers hallucinations about insects shacks up in an Oklahoma city motel with Agnes, a lonely waitress on the run from her abusive husband. As the misfits bond, his paranoia gradually infects Aggie, driving the pair of them to experience terrifying visions.

Robert's focus on America

BY EILEEN CONDON

ACTOR and director Robert Redford has no intention of mellowing with age – despite turning 71 this year.

In fact the star says he is more opinionated than ever – particularly when it comes to the current situation in the US.

"It's true to say I'm probably getting angrier and more engaged," he says flashing his trademark blue eyes.

"I'm aware that America has a lot of power and a lot of ability to do good in the world, so I'm very interested in what has happened to our reputation in the world since 9/11."

Redford's laid-back demeanour and gentle manner belies a fierce passion for politics which he's channelled through some of cinema's most influential films, like The Candidate and All The President's Men.

And almost 40 years after hitting the big time in Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid, he has come out with all guns blazing again. This time, with his latest movie Lions For Lambs, he has his targets firmly set on the American media, education and on US Congress.

Redford, who also directed the film, stars alongside Tom Cruise and Meryl Streep as an idealistic college professor who inadvertently propels two of his former students into the Afghanistan war with tragic consequences.

Though he had not directed a film for seven years, the veteran star says the screenplay immediately resonated with him. "I was surprised by it because it was political and there's so much commercial insecurity about films these days it seems that only the ones that play safe get made."

"Those that are more risky in nature, that

yourkenttv.co.uk

maybe make you think or wonder, are harder to come by. And yet those are the films I've always enjoyed making," he explains.

"To me, it's a film about personal responsibility, about young people accepting the role they play in shaping the future and about how we each deal with our choices in life."

Playing a college professor also struck an ironic chord with the star, as his own education was cut short when he was kicked out of the University of Colorado for drunkenness.

The failed college student went on to become one of the most successful actors in screen history thanks to acclaimed performances in hit films such as Butch Cassidy, The Sting, The Way We Were and The Great Gatsby.

He's also proved to be equally skilled behind the camera with an Oscar win for his directorial debut Ordinary People and a nomination for his 1994 film Quiz Show.

PASSION: Robert Redford directed and stars in his new film Lions for Lambs, a modern, political movie

Despite his stellar career Redford has maintained his integrity as a committed environmentalist and set up the hugely-successful Sundance Film Festival, which encourages new film-makers and actors.

He gave two of the hottest current talents in Hollywood their big break, Brad Pitt in A River Runs Through It, which he directed and Scarlett Johansson, in The Horse Whisperer. His latest find is rising British star Andrew Garfield, who appears in Lions For Lambs.

"I've always enjoyed finding new people," said Redford. "I knew Andrew was English and I'd seen a lot of American actors, but I was very impressed that he could come in and read the part perfectly in an American accent."

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

THE next three weeks find you having extensive talks with authority figures. This may be your big chance to present a bold idea, ask for a promotion, or enact changes to a large organisation. Don't be vague in your responses. If you don't know the answer to a question, admit it. Hedging will make people suspicious.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

ENTERING into a professional partnership is a good idea. There's never been a better time to sign a contract. Your employer may be vague about future rewards. Get any promises regarding payments in writing. Be willing to make amends. A meeting of the minds generates romance. Nothing excites your imagination like common interests.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

REAL estate matters could take up a good deal of your week. This is a good time to negotiate a home purchase or rental agreement. A romantic partner's ideas about domestic life may be very different from yours. It may be necessary to revise a project. Do this behind the scenes. The less attention you draw to this matter, the better.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

YOU'LL find a receptive audience to your ideas. Take each and every opportunity to share your brainstorms. Confusion over a family matter could undermine your authority. If you think you made a mistake, be honest. Don't be too forceful when discussing sensitive matters like religion and politics. An older friend will impart good advice.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

IF you've been thinking of going back to school, send out applications before the end of the month. If you're interested in winning someone's heart, play hard to get. Pairing up with someone who has lots of experience can advance your cause, particularly if you are doing business overseas or are dealing with an unfamiliar culture.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

IF you've been suffering from a nagging pain, get a consultation with a health professional. Looking for work? Send out a slew of CVs and job applications. Take an expert's advice with a grain of salt, especially with regard to your job. Curb your spending between now and January, or you could incur some serious debt.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

IF you're in the market for office equipment, you're in luck. Don't overestimate your physical endurance, especially with regard to work. Putting in late nights and long hours could really tax your health. Pulling back from an intense group project will give you more time for personal pursuits between now and late January.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

KEEP your own counsel over the next three weeks. It's best to keep plans private. What was meant as a kind remark could be interpreted the wrong way. Be prepared to explain yourself. It may be best to back down from an amorous affair, as this alliance seems to be clouding your thinking. Onlookers are impressed by your modesty.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

THIS week prompts you to think carefully about joint finances. Neither a lender nor a borrower be, especially where friends are concerned. A home improvement project could experience some delays between now and January; it may be time to table any major decisions regarding this job. Being resourceful earns you great success at work.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

MAKING plans for a vacation, party, or club gathering is a good use of your talent this week. It gives you great pleasure to organise fun activities. If you're already in a relationship, take care to learn your partner's true desires. It may be best to downplay your aggression. You can't afford to make enemies during this tense period.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

NEGOTIATING new financial arrangements could prove profitable. A show of wealth won't impress a love interest - use your creativity as bait. An aggressive authority figure is beginning to let up; you could get a welcome reprieve from their oppressive gaze between now and early February. Trust your intuition with regard to a business deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

GROUP efforts stimulate your imagination. If you have an idea, run it past a supportive group of friends. Together, you can create a masterpiece, turning a merely good concept into a brilliant one. Don't assume that your peers have as much money as you do. Ease off a partner who is showing signs of strain. Compassion goes a long way.

Trinny and Susannah shape up UK's women

■ BY ANDY WELCH

FROM cellos and goblets to bricks and lollipops, Trinny and Susannah believe they've finally come up with the 12 definitive female body shapes after interrogating thousands of British women about their saddle bags, muffin tops, cankles and pot bellies.

"In our first book we researched the big issues for women such as massive or no boobs, flabby arms, wide hips, short legs, flabby tummies and so on, but over the years a lot of women have pointed out that some of the rules contradicted each other. We thought we'd better deal with that so we came up with the 12 shapes," Trinny explains.

"There's way too much emphasis on what dress size someone is but I never, ever look at the labels in clothes when I'm dressing somebody. I look at the woman's shape and the contrast between her boobs and tummy or whatever, not by picking out a size 14 jacket and just hoping it works."

Susannah adds: "Basically, we wrote The Body Shape Bible to give women confidence and to stop them pulling their hair out when they go shopping for clothes!"

Trinny and Susannah's latest tome highlights the main characteristics of each of their 12 new female body shapes and illustrates how just how easy it is to make simple mistakes by blindly following fashion instead of being aware of what suits your shape.

"The rules and ideas in the book are simple and fundamental so, for example, if you are a corset shape with wide shoulders, narrow hips

SHOPPING SUPREMOS: Trinny and Susannah are on a mission to help women find the right clothes to suit them and long legs you should always wear A-line, single breasted jackets because you're top heavy," Susannah reveals.

"Or if you're a column shape, you should always try to break up your up-and-down body with a funky belt, or a top or dress with a cinched-in waist so that it draws attention to the middle of your body."

In their brand new ITV1 series, Trinny and Susannah Undress The Nation, the girls have the chance to take their innovative new dress code for a road test all over the UK to tackle the country's major style issues.

"Something like 46 per cent of British women are over a size 16 but 80 per cent of high street shops don't stock size 16 and above so larger women often have to shop via catalogues and mail order," reveals Trinny.

"The situation is getting better but it's still very difficult, so rather than going into a shop and picking out all of the size 16s or 18s to try on, no matter what style they are, we want women to ignore the sizes and find the right clothes for their shape instead."

"Just go in and think 'right, I'm going to find all the double-breasted jackets, or all the A-line skirts, or all of the long tailored trousers with pockets at the back or whatever it is that suits my shape' rather than trying on twenty-odd random items in the same size and then getting depressed because none of them actually suit you," she recommends.

Of course, it's not only grown women who make fashion disasters. The teenage generation are just as guilty of putting together catwalk-copied outfits which generally do them no favours at all.

"Right now I would say that a lot of women, especially teenage girls, are wearing very unforgiving skinny jeans simply to feel fashionable and, let's face it, only someone with a Kate Moss-type figure ever looks any good in them," warns Trinny.

"Teenagers are under such enormous pressure from their peers and the media and it's pretty tough if they're not the exact shape that society dictates they should be."

"In my opinion a girl who is pear shaped can still look great as she could just wear a baby doll dress with leggings that come down her mid-calf as a trendy alternative to skinny jeans. There's no shape dilemma that can't be solved," she says.

Enjoy an exotic island mixer

■ BY CHRIS COURT

A FEW miles south-west of its rather more exotic neighbour Mustique, Canouan may at last be ready to shrug off its image as the forgotten island of the Caribbean.

Thanks to the vision of two multi-millionaires, the green and hilly three square miles of Canouan have been sensitively transformed into a luxury, multi-activity holiday destination.

The island now offers everything most visitors could possibly want – thanks to Swiss-Italian banker Antonio Saladino and American businessman Donald Trump, who have ensured there is plenty to do ashore and afloat, as well as simply soaking up the sun.

At the heart of the Grenadines chain, Canouan has five palm-fringed, soft white coral sand beaches, bath-warm brilliant turquoise seas, a 1.5-mile coral reef, views for miles over the Caribbean from its peaks and average minimum temperatures around 25°C.

Visitors meander the snaking network of narrow roads and paths in golf carts, taking care to avoid the population of tortoises – known locally as turtles – after which the island was named.

A 15-year plan to build 135 high-spec Trump Island Villas, costing from about £1 million, will enable the super-rich to have their own slice of secluded Caribbean paradise here, with breathtaking views.

BEAUTY: A sunset view of Canouan Island's golf course from the balcony of a Raffles resort holiday cottage

Shorter-term, and less well-off, visitors can wallow in top-of-the-range facilities on the 300-acre, five-star Raffles Resort instead, and the smaller Tamarind Beach Hotel & Yacht Club, with both offering superb world cuisine at various gourmet restaurants.

Raffles Resort Canouan Island complex – the luxury hotel group's first resort in the western hemisphere – opened in August 2004.

An amphitheatre-shaped, palm tree setting overlooking sheltered Carenage Bay, it holds 156 dramatically decorated and stylishly furnished one to four bedroom suites and villas, with garden, ocean or golf course views.

If you can drag yourself away from the hotel's gorgeous confines, there's plenty to see and do. We took a high-speed motorboat to Tobago Keys, just 40 minutes away. Because our visit was in the September-October close season, we had this island virtually to ourselves – although a chap soon appeared with a wide choice of T-shirts for sale.

With many young people leaving to find work on other islands, Canouan's population dwindled to under 500. But in 1990, Saladino took a 99-year lease on 1,200 acres, two thirds, of the island.

The story goes that he was unable to build on Mustique and saw Canouan's potential just a few miles across the Caribbean.

Since then the banker and Canouan Resorts Development, which he heads, have spent more than £100m installing an airstrip, roads, electricity, water production, a clinic, schools and a training college.

Now there are some 500 people working at the island's 300-acre Raffles Resort, more than 80 at Tamarind, and some 300 for Trump's villa developments building company.

Raffles merits such a large workforce. As well as the golf course and the fabulous restaurants, it has a well-equipped gym and also offers tennis, yoga, mountain biking and power walking, and sea sports including windsurfing, sailing diving and snorkelling.

Noisy neighbours top quarrel polls

NOISE is still the main reason for neighbourly disputes, according to research by Halifax estate agents.

In the last 12 months over a quarter of us admit to having had disagreements with neighbours – 26 per cent of these were linked to noise.

The report goes on to list the other main causes for neighbours to fall out, including boundary disputes (14 per cent), pets (11 per cent), parking (10 per cent) and bordering or overhanging trees and plants (7 per cent).

Figures show that women outnumbered men when it came to complaining, with anti-social behaviour their largest grievance.

Age also seems to be a factor. A staggering 49 per cent of 16-24 year olds admitted to quarrelling with the neighbours, whilst the 55-64 age group, at 24 per cent, was least likely to have done so.

Geographically, the report identified that those living in the south are over 10 per cent more likely to have had neighbourly disputes sometime during the last year than those living in the North or Midlands.

The conclusion would seem to indicate that if we want harmonious neighbourly relations we should move next-door to a quiet, 60-year-old Yorkshireman.

Good location and cheaply priced

THERE are many reasons why Thanet is such a big attraction to house buyers.

Its four main towns – Birchington, Broadstairs, Margate and Ramsgate – stretch across 26 miles of beautiful coastline.

The real draw, according to estate agents, is that Thanet offers good value for money, comparing well to other areas in Kent. The price of a two bedroom house starts at £125,000. Buyers can expect to pay a 10 to 20 per cent premium for similar properties in Canterbury or Ashford, for example.

Whilst about 40 per cent of sales are to local buyers, an ever-increasing number of investors are being drawn to the area. Locals cite the micro-climate as one of the pleasures of living in Thanet.

The area is benefiting from regeneration and inward investment and the arrival of the high speed rail link in 2009 will dramatically cut journey times to London.

WELCOME: The American way of opening your house for the public to view could be the best way to tackle our slowing property market

Can open viewings help sell houses?

■ BY JENNY SANTOS

AS THE property market slows down, open house viewings could be the next big thing for vendors struggling to sell their homes.

Already the norm in the USA and Australia, the trend seems to be catching on here.

Open viewings see vendors throw open their doors on a fixed day, usually at the weekend, inviting potential buyers to view their home without the constraints of having to make a prior appointment.

Traditionally the domain of prestigious houses, the open house is usually seen as an efficient way for estate agents to condense many viewings into one day or to introduce competitive hype between buyers for high demand properties.

However, with a sluggish property market, the 'open house' can be a useful marketing tool for enthusiastic vendors who are prepared to be pro-active in selling their own home. It seems to make sense. Most estate agents are closed at the weekend when a large number of people are free to look at potential homes.

Buyers can wander around the property at their leisure and vendors can prepare for a single public viewing, rather than trying to live in a constant state of readiness for ad-hoc appointments.

I recently made my own foray into open viewings whilst trying to sell my two-bedroom, terraced cottage.

It had been on the market for six weeks with only a sprinkling of interest and one sole viewing.

Belying first impressions, it really is quite spacious inside with a lovely, large rear garden but with the tired phrase 'must be viewed' not doing the trick, frustration led me to arrange an open day.

I had to face the fact that I was inviting not only potential buyers but also local nosey parkers into my home, but I decided I didn't mind on the basis that local gossip can still generate sales.

Despite short notice – three days to be precise – and therefore only limited advertising, between noon and 4pm on the Sunday I had six potential buyers look around.

Obviously, precautions had to be taken with regard to security. Friends helped out and I removed valuables, personal items and keys. Asking interested parties to pre-register with the agent also prevents people wandering in off the street.

Overall, I thought it was a day well spent but as for the results? A second viewing was requested by one potential buyer – I wait with interest.

Have you ever wondered... why most Estate Agents don't advertise their fees....?

At Oakwood homes we believe in transparency – our fees are just 1.49% + VAT INCLUDING your HIP
So, if an estate agent won't tell you their fees BEFORE they come to value, then they've probably got something to hide....?!

MOTORS NEWS

Land Rover team has a tough two-day trek

A TEAM from Barretts Land Rover, Ashford, followed some of the world's most adventurous athletes by joining a gruelling competition based upon Land Rover's global G4 Challenge – G4 Trek.

They went to the Land Rover Experience Centre near Ashford to take on teams from other UK dealerships and Barretts Land Rover dealer principal Mark Nicholas said: "The event was a fantastic team-building opportunity and a chance for staff to prove the depth of their product and wider automotive knowledge before sleeping under canvas during the two-day event."

A grand final will be held this weekend.

Small diesels gather favour in used market

USED diesel supermini values have rocketed, with premiums over equivalent petrol models doubling in some cases.

According to market watchers at the trade 'bible', Glass's Guide, two and three-year old diesel examples of best sellers like the Ford Fiesta (pictured) and Peugeot 206, for instance, command £500 more than petrol rivals now when the margin was just £200 a year ago.

The trend is attributed not only to economy, but also to increasing diesel refinement at this end of the market.

Chrysler's retro clout confounds the critics

CRITICS of Chrysler's retro 300C have been contradicted by the executive car's solid secondhand values after two years on the UK market.

A CAP motor trade guide spokesman said: "A two-year-old diesel Chrysler 300C with 30,000 miles on the clock is worth an impressive 67 per cent of the £25,750 it cost when new. In contrast, a BMW 525D of a similar age that cost £31,115 in 2005 is currently worth £19,300 – that's 62 per cent retained value."

NEW LOOK: The Jaguar XK Coupe may leave the traditionalists choking in its wake, but the style changes should keep the brand in the spotlight

Revolution by innovation ousts Jaguar tradition

LISTENING to old-guard customers clamouring for tradition got Jaguar into a right old mess.

The marque had been pandering to a vociferous minority that was dying out, instead of looking after the ever-changing dynamic business class that brought Jaguar to power in the 50s and 60s, when innovation was its mantra not tradition.

Fortunately, as Jag seems set to change hands again – Ford is in talks with Indian buyers – innovation is back in vogue and the pivotal model will be next year's XF replacement for the very retro S-Type saloon.

But history may recall that change began with the latest XK Coupe and Convertible models.

We tested a Coupe and, as if to underline change, our car was bright red with the optional alloy-look dashboard rather than 'traditional' wood.

Its sharper lines are a nod to the future too, though there is the briefest backward glance – an oval grille, as worn by the famous D and E-Type sports models.

Apart from that, this car is 'New Jaguar' with distinctive vents on the wings and an aluminium body some 25 per cent lighter than rivals like the equally svelte Mercedes SL and lumpier BMW 6-Series.

This adds to excellent cornering for this muscular-yet-smooth riding car and allows it to sprint to 60 in less than six seconds, and average around 25mpg – almost environmentally-friendly for this market sector.

But that's in 'standard' 300bhp 4.2-litre V8 form as tested here. There is also a loony supercharged 420bhp XKR, but who needs that when the 'cooking version' drives and sounds so good – the V8 delivers the right sound without being intrusive.

The auto gearbox and manual selection via the steering wheel paddles is creamy too, and there are some nice touches inside: push-button starter, classy seats – though the rear ones are useless for carrying even the smallest kids – plus a decent boot for this class of car.

Yes, it would be great if the XK proved to be the moment that innovation rather than tradition launched a Jaguar revival.

USED CAR ROUND-UP: OUR PICK FROM A KEY SECTOR

ALTERNATIVE FAMILY HATCHBACKS

SALES competition in the UK car market is toughest in the family hatchback sector, dominated by big names such as the consistent number one, the Ford Focus and its arch rivals, the Vauxhall Astra and VW Golf. But the sheer demand in this close-fought sector means there are many other strong and attractive alternatives such as the diverse trio we have chosen here: one Spaniard with German underpinnings, a Japanese contender with a 'Made in Britain' stamp and a French contestant with lots of flair plus flexibility.

SEAT LEON

THIS Spanish spin-off from the previous generation VW Golf is a more likeable car with sleeker styling and a better chassis set-up. The wide nose has an aggressive and sporty look while the five-door body is practical and space efficient. Choice ranges from well-specified entry models to frugal yet lively diesels, right up to the brilliant Cupra R hot hatch. Above all, it is excellent value as a used buy, now that it has been superseded by an all-new version.

PEUGEOT 307

FAMILY hatchbacks have been a Peugeot mainstay for several generations, but the 307 was a more arresting and imposing car than its predecessors. It comes in various body styles: three and five-door hatch, MPV-style SW and estate alternatives and even the sleek Coupe Cabriolet. Engine options include Peugeot's legendary turbo-diesels. With the newly-arrived 308 replacement now appearing in showrooms, a deal on a late-registration 307 could be excellent value.

HONDA CIVIC

FUTURISTIC looks for the latest Civic have made the previous car look very staid – with the notable exception of the Type-R hot hatch version. But the dramatic change has driven values down for the older line-up, making them good value, especially the spacious five-door where the Civic's dash-mounted gearshift is even more effective at visually opening up the front passenger area. Prices are still not the cheapest, but Hondas don't let you down and are British-built at Swindon.

Award Winning Company

Share the benefits of being a Partner in our business

Section Manager, Transport

Morning shift: £21,600 - £27,800 & benefits
37.5 hours per week over 5 days · Aylesford

At Waitrose, we're in the process of opening a new Regional Distribution Centre here in Aylesford. We've got big plans for the centre to grow, embrace new technologies and eventually serve over 50 branches across the south of England.

If you can help to ensure the smooth running of our transport operation so that delivery targets are consistently met, we'll give you a lot in return. For a start, you'll work 37.5 hours per week over 5 days, so you'll have plenty of time to pursue your other interests. You'll also enjoy all the benefits of being a Partner in our business. As well as being part of an excellent profit-sharing scheme, which this year was equivalent to nine weeks' pay, you can look forward to discounts in Waitrose and John Lewis stores, pension scheme, free life assurance, subsidised educational, leisure and sporting activities, subsidised meals and five weeks' holiday after three years' service.

You'll lead a team of Transport Operators and Drivers, ensuring that the day-to-day operation runs as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible. This will involve maintaining high standards in areas such as service levels, road safety and workplace health & safety, as well as managing the site load plan and delivery schedule. Motivating and appraising your team will also be an important aspect of your role.

You might be in a similar transport/retail logistics role at the moment... or you might have the potential to step up to this level. Either way, you'll need good knowledge of the transport industry, a proactive and organised approach, a cool head under pressure and the ability to think on your feet. Good people management skills are essential in this role.

To apply, please send your CV, quoting reference SMT1, to Lorraine Robinson, Assistant Personnel Manager Supply Chain, Waitrose RDC, Beddow Way, Aylesford, Kent ME20 7AT.

Closing date: 23rd November 2007.

The Partnership is committed to providing equal opportunities for all regardless of differences such as gender, ethnic origin, disability, sexual orientation, age, social background, religion and belief.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Tribunals prove rather popular, and very costly

THE South East has the highest number of employment tribunal claims related to sex discrimination in the UK, according to figures published by employment relations firm Acas.

The South East had 2,255 claims in the year. London came second with 920.

The South East also saw the highest number of employment tribunal claims relating to working time with 1,113. Unfair dismissal was clearly the biggest workplace worry for South East workers, with 3,520 claims made.

The average cost of a claim is about £7,500. Acas says employers should phone its helpline – 08457 474747 – for advice early in the process.

'We should be left to find our own solutions'

FRAZER THOMPSON, chairman of the Kent branch of the Institute of Directors, has taken a swipe at the Prime Minister after last week's Queen's Speech, branding it not good for business.

Mr Thompson said the Government "shows it still thinks it can solve everything by legislation and regulation".

He continued: "The package addresses many of the right issues – especially skills, energy and transport.

"But too often proposals are about Government imposing top-down plans, rather than Government making it easier for businesses, individuals and communities to find the solutions that work for them."

Make sure you cash in on speedy payments

RECENT postal strikes, turbulence in the banking system and the financial strains of the holiday season make it more important than ever for Kent companies to keep an eye on cash flow, warns Business Link.

According to their research, late payment from customers is a major problem for almost one in five (19 per cent) Kent companies.

Business Link adviser Ian Netherton said: "Money is no use to a business until it is in the bank – poor cash flow is the biggest single killer of otherwise viable businesses."

NATURAL BEAUTY: The tourism industry needs to protect and contribute to stunning countryside like this near Wye to encourage visitors and help ensure its long-term future

Time to go green and win gold in tourism

■ BY JON COATES

BUSINESSES have been urged to cash in on the growing market in eco-friendly tourism.

Visitor attractions, hotels, bed-and-breakfasts and working farms in Kent can save money through energy conservation, efficient water use and cutting down on waste.

In doing so, they will boost their appeal to people looking to enjoy holidays, walks or leisure activities without spoiling our beautiful countryside.

The nationally recognised Green Tourism Business Scheme provides a framework for companies to implement good environmental practice.

Grants and support are available to businesses in the leisure and tourism industry wanting to become more sustainable.

As part of the scheme, ventures are assessed every two years on 120 different measures of best practice.

There are three compulsory sections and companies achieving three successes in each of these get bronze awards, those meeting four get silver, and those achieving five gold.

So far 17 businesses in Kent have gained

SUCCESS: Brenley Farm at Boughton – a silver award winner for its bed and breakfast on a working farm accreditation, with two getting gold awards, 10 achieving silver and five bronze.

Alkham Court at South Alkham, near Dover, which offers bed and breakfast on a working farm, and Palace Farm Hostel at Doddington, near Faversham, which offers family rooms on a working farm, both achieved gold status.

Silver award winners include Kent Gliding Club at Challock, near Ashford, Tanner Farm at Marden, a caravan and camping park, and Great Field Farm at Stelling Minnis, near Canterbury, which offers bed and breakfast.

Two workshops have been organised by Kent Downs and Natural East Kent Sustainable Tourism Project to help business leaders understand the scheme and give advice on how to join it.

The day-long events will take place at Kent Showground in Detling, near Maidstone, on Wednesday, November 28, and at Minster village hall in Thanet, the day after.

Organisers hope to hold more workshops around the county at later dates.

Fran Warrington, head of Kent Tourism, said: "Businesses in our sector can no longer afford to ignore environmental issues.

"We have to work together so that Kent is well placed to take advantage of the growing green tourism market, as well as ensuring the sustainability of our own businesses and the sector as a whole."

For more details about the scheme and workshops, phone Sarah Loftus on 01303 815174.

Gillingham striker Delroy Facey talks about life at Priestfield Stadium

Bromley battle saw Ville lose

CLIFTONVILLE LADIES were on the wrong side of a 3-1 scoreline after putting in a disappointing performance against Bromley and Beckenham.

Bromley were first to gain the lead and within 10 minutes they added another to their tally to really put the pressure on Ville.

However, just before half-time, Ville replied through Kay Saunders who deflected Tracy Ballard's strike into the net to get her side a chance.

Another Bromley attack resulted in a goalmouth scramble and they managed to regain their two goal lead and go into half-time 3-1 up.

Ville remained positive and defended well to prevent two further goals from Bromley after good opportunities.

The home side had their chances too, but Chris Russell missed after going one-on-one with the keeper which meant Ville were unable to get back in the game and slumped to defeat.

NOT ENOUGH: Thanet fly-half Peter Macaulay was influential in Thanet getting back into the game, but it was not enough to overcome a strong Sutton & Epsom forward line

Spirited try by Thanet wasn't enough to win

THANET WANDERERS were unable to capitalise on Tom Ash's early try as they went down by a score in a must win game at home to rivals Sutton & Epsom.

With both sides languishing at the bottom of a strong London Division One, it was important that Thanet got something from the game.

However, Sutton's strong forward presence and fly-half Steve Williams' precision kicking helped close the game out.

The Wanderers took the lead in the sixth minute when Peter Macaulay was able to get quick ball and he found full-back Ash who jinked past two tackles before sprinting 60m for a try.

Scrum-half Pieter Slabbert missed the conversion and within two minutes, Sutton were back on level terms. The visitor's forwards made good progress in the Thanet 22 and it allowed the ball to be shipped out across the backs, before Ray Enslin went over for a try.

conversion to give the Surrey side a 5-7 lead. Thanet came back and scored another try through Stuart Plumridge after an excellent pass from Macaulay. This time Slabbert kicked the conversion and it looked like Thanet would go on to dominate the game.

However, the Sutton forwards continued to press Thanet's pack further into their half and their dominance paid off when in extra time a strong drive from a lineout secured another try. It was duly converted by Williams and despite all of Thanet's possession, they went into the half-time break 12-14 down.

Sutton then further extended their lead early in the second half, when Enslin scored his second try of the game from an interception, and Williams converted again.

Slabbert kicked a penalty for Thanet to get back in the game, but some sloppy penalties were given away which allowed Williams to score again and leave the score at 15-24.

Ben Massey, who went off in the first half, came back on in the second period but received another blow to the head, which resulted in a broken cheekbone.

Williams added another penalty and it looked as though the game was over for Thanet.

However, the Wanderers refused to give up and with three minutes remaining, Slabbert released Matt McArdle who sprinted over the line. Slabbert converted the most difficult of his kicks on the day, to bring Thanet within a score and a conversion of a win. Thanet were unable to get the try they needed and Sutton were left to celebrate an important win at the end.

• The Wanderers are next in action on November 24, when they travel to Shelford. Kick-off is at 2.30pm.

Victory snatched from Rams in disallowed goal

THUNDERBOLT: Rams skipper Warren Schulz hit a cracking half-volley to draw his side level

RAMSGATE were left to count the cost of missed chances after dropping two points against 10-man Boreham Wood.

The Rams had to come from behind in Hertfordshire after Wood scored in the opening 12 minutes of the game.

Ward's side went into the game full of confidence after two excellent results against league leaders Chelmsford City and Hastings United, and he named an unchanged side from the team that won 4-1 a couple of weeks ago.

The Ramsgate manager was worried that his side would lose some of that momentum after having a weekend off last week, and this certainly looked to be the case when Wood opened the scoring in the 12th minute.

After a goalmouth scramble, Luke Gregson's header was judged to have crossed the line by the assistant referee and it gave Wood an important lead.

The home side were reduced to 10 men after half an hour, when Fiston Mauella appeared to elbow Rams midfielder Lee Minshull in full view of the assistant referee.

Ramsgate made the extra man count just before the half-time interval, when Minshull's cross found skipper Warren Schulz in front of goal, and his half-volley almost burst the roof of the net.

Ward's side threw everything at the home side in the second half, but were frustrated by some strong challenges from the Wood defence and a number of offside decisions. Substitute striker Stuart King, was forced to go off in the second half after being hauled down in the area.

The Rams thought they had snatched victory, but the goal was disallowed in the 88th minute as a result of a push on the goalkeeper.

Ramsgate were in action last night at East Thurrock.

Gate is open for a new centre-back

FOOTBALL

■ BY YOURTHANET REPORTER

Margate 2 Harrow Borough 1

STEVE McKIMM'S second-half strike secured a win for Margate at Hartsdown Park to bury the memory of last week's disappointment of going out of the FA Trophy.

Despite being knocked out of both cups, Margate have been quietly creeping up the Ryman Premier League. After four games unbeaten, Robin Trott's side sit just a point off a play-off position and only three points behind rivals Ramsgate.

Trott was forced to play again on Saturday, but he is on the look out for a new centre-back to help bolster his defence.

An injury to Justin Skinner, meant Trott had to play, but the Gate manager has been inquiring about a defender from the Blue Square South to help his squad that has been deprived of players through injury.

He said: "I am trying to speak to a player at the moment but I haven't been able to make contact. I am on the look-out for a couple of players, but all I can say is I am hoping to speak to a centre-half who plays in a league above ourselves."

Margate took the lead in the 15th minute when Jay Saunders powered in a header from a Dan Young free-kick.

Gate failed to hold onto their lead for longer than two minutes when Byron Harrison made no mistake when one-on-one with Scott Chalmers-Stevens.

With just 12 minutes of the game to go, Gate scored the decisive second goal. Striker Charlie Side found Saunders who slipped the ball to player/coach McKimm, who hit a low shot beyond the keeper and into the net.

Margate play Maidstone United at Bourne Park on Saturday. Kick-off is at 3pm.

GOOD FINISH: Margate player/coach Steve McKimm scored a vital second-half goal to give the Blues all three points

CLOSE CALL: Cliftonville almost pulled off a shock win against the league leaders

Injuries leave Ville down and out against Bexley

CLIFTONVILLE came close to pulling off a good result despite having only eight players for a period of the game against league leaders Bexley.

Ville had only travelled with the bare 11 and on 15 minutes, Karl Peres suffered a back strain and Alex Cowes injured a leg.

James Perks was sent off, which left Ville with just eight fit players on the pitch as Peres and Cowes had to play through their injuries.

Perks was allowed back on the pitch and made an instant impact. Ville pressured hard and the ball was played into the opponent's area, where it was met by Perks who lifted the ball into the roof of the net.

Ville held on until half-time and skipper Tony Burton stressed the team had to keep their shape in order to win the game.

In the second half Ville started off well, but because of the injuries, players were having to cover more of the pitch and holes started to appear in the midfield.

HOCKEY

Bexley Invicta 2 Cliftonville 1

Bexley pressed forward and a narrow angle goal was scored as Paul McNally dived out to cover but saw the ball bounce off the chest, under his body and into the goal.

This unfortunately gave the home side the surge that they needed to push on and win the game.

A short corner was awarded to Bexley and for the first time they were able to make it pay.

The ball whistled towards the top left hand corner and McNally could only get a touch of the glove to deflect it further into the corner.

As the final whistle went, Ville were left to ponder what could have been if they had enough fit players and had taken some of their opportunities.
